

Encoding–Decoding Constellations III: Textile Studies

Materials:

Cotton blend

Dimensions:

8 in x 11 in reach

Description:

This series explores how geometric structure can move from abstract representation into intimate, felt experience. The garment patterns are designed using the encoding–decoding framework introduced in Project 1, then laser-cut, hand-draped, and sewn, bringing together computational fabrication and handcraft.

Associated Media:

